

Get your PhD in CNC!

You're registered to attend an upcoming Axiom/Vectric CNC training event.

We're excited to see you at our upcoming Vectric Training Class. Please review this email closely as it provides details related to location, schedule and travel recommendation.

Please note, a laptop and copy of Vcarve or Aspire is recommended, but not required.

Location

Axiom Tool Group, Inc.
270 E. Broad Street
Westerville, OH 43081
(844) 642-4902

The Axiom Tool Group is growing. We have recently moved into our new expanded facility in beautiful Westerville, Ohio.

Schedule

Thursday 8:00AM - 4:00PM

Friday 8:00AM - 4:00PM

Lunch will be served each day at noon. If you have specific dietary restrictions, please notify us in advance.

Bonus

Saturday 9:00 AM - 12:00PM

Interested in sticking around for a hands-on CNC experience? We will host an informal CNC workshop where we can focus on your specific applications. You'll have access to every machine in the Axiom line-up and lots of great accessories too.

Travel

If you need a place to stay, we recommend our local Cambria Hotel Columbus - Polaris.
